WHAT treasures of art does this little room contain !-Whichever way you turn, some immortal creation greets your eye. Here you can linger profitably for hours, contemplating the noblest of God's creation-man; tere converse silently with the living and the dead, until the withered arm of memory seems again restored and strength . ened, and reaches forth its hand to greet those with whom we were once intimately associated, but now inhabit the gloomy prison house of forgetfulness. Who would die with out leaving so desirable a token of remembrance behind ! Here beauty, with its diversity of expression and features. glows forth from the plate with rapturous divinity, and fasinates the eye, until the heart worships them, not like the inimitable virginly Angels, the sainted Madonna, or the blue-bearded Magdalene, but as the unapproachable Daguerrectypes of relatives and friends, made by Harrison.
